

Live Your Love

What do you love? What are you passionate about? What do you daydream about? These are things to think about. Your attention goes to who has your heart.

When I was in my 20's I was passionate about being in a band. It consumed my time and attention. It caused me to give up things that really mattered like family. The lifestyle cause me to make bad decisions, get terribly in debt and it lead me into a suicide attempt at 25.

I had to give up my dream and get a job to dig out of the mess I had made. I lived in the basement of my parents house and it was going to take years to pay off all my debt. I became a robot to focus on what I needed to do. I shut down on the inside.

At 32 I got married, had my debt paid off and owned a condo. I had a little happiness here and there. I gave my whole life to Jesus at 42 and that is when God showed me how dead I was. At 25 when I closed my heart, I didn't realize what I had done. It is incredibly hard to restart a heart. I am still struggling with being passionate about anything. Apathy is a monster.

2 Kings 13:18 Jehoash is shown how apathetic he is and how apathy is an enemy of God. The people of Israel paid a price for his apathetic ways. How much is my family suffering due to my apathy. How much is my life is suffering due to apathy.

Guard your heart! My decisions have hindered the passion in my marriage. It has affected my relationship with God. I know it can be fixed so I can have a fiery passion for my wife and heavenly spouse.
